* An Epic Drama Born from a Myth * An Action RPG Based on Real-Time Strategy * A Multilayered Story with 4 Different Worlds ----- Gameplay for combat makes me feel like I'm playing a RTS ----- As it is a Fantasy RPG, I'd like to give it a RTS mechanic feel. As we're a close to everyone can play together type of platform so I decide not to have actual units. Instead, I decided to have a giant set of abilities or abilities that can be optionally attached to your character. In XCom you can move your troops around, you can set up a line of defense, you can plant new troops and bring them to the front, and so on. A few of the things you can do with XCom are not possible with an RPG, like selecting units and moving them. This is a combat based RPG, but the combat mechanics are loosely based on XCom. They're different from XCom, because in XCom there is only one, global turn. Some of these games have multiple turns: turn 1, turn 2, turn 3, etc. Additionally, this game has turn based battles, while XCom has real-time battle.
----- Elites *Epic Story Battle Backgrounds *Over 70 party, over 70 NPC party roles. ----- Character Design *Personalized costumes *Fully customizable *Variety of Looks, from low-class to high-class characters
----- Gameplay *Unique combat system, where Abilities can be chosen *40 Abilities to work with. *Up to 6 choices to be made for each Ability ----- Here is a quick overview of the abilities and their effectiveness. I also added a list of abilities that are extremely powerful, to show players what abilities are good to pick, to avoid playing with weak materials. Abilities: -Ability Crystals: 20 - 40 Greatly increases the Attack Ability Value. -Plus Attack: Increases the Attack Ability Value by 5, for each ally currently in battle. -Enemy Killing: Removes the current enemy from battle. -Equip Equip: Increases the Defense Ability Value by 10, for each item
